This listing includes all RADP meets currently scheduled. All meets listed are open to everyone. Just show up at the appointed time and location and join in the fun!

All meets will begin at the time listed on this schedule when possible. Late comers can catch us at the next meet. Please note that on occasion, our meets might run a little behind timewise. We will never start a meet early but we may be running a little late on a meet now and then. If you don't see us at the appointed time, have faith. We will be along shortly.
